Where references are made to JCQ regulations/guidelines, further details can be found at www.jcq.org.uk

The centre is committed to ensuring that the exams management and administration process is run effectively and efficiently and in compliance with the published JCQ regulations and awarding body requirements.

This exam policy will ensure that:

- all aspects of the centre's exam process is documented, supporting the exams contingency plan, and other relevant exams-related policies, procedures and plans are signposted to
- the workforce is well informed and supported

This policy is reviewed annually to ensure ways of working in the centre are accurately reflected and that exams and assessments are conducted to current JCQ (and awarding body) regulations, instructions and guidance.

This policy will be communicated to all relevant centre staff via the school IT network and hard copies.

Roles and responsibilities overview

The Head of Centre is the individual who is accountable to the awarding bodies for ensuring that the centre is always compliant with the published JCQ regulations and awarding body requirements to ensure the security and integrity of the examinations/assessments. This individual must have the authority to deploy the necessary

Heads of Centre must ensure that senior leadership teams and exam office personnel familiarise themselves with the entire contents of JCQ General Regulations for Approved Centres booklet. In particular, Heads of Centre must familiarise themselves with sections 5.1, 5.3 and 5.4.

Heads of Centre must ensure that relevant members of staff respond promptly to requests for information from awarding bodies relating to the administration and conducting of examinations/assessments. (GR, section 1)

The Examinations Officer is the person appointed by the Head of Centre to act on behalf of, and be the main point of contact for, the centre in matters relating to the general administration of awarding body examinations and assessments.

The Head of Centre may not appoint themselves as the Examinations Officer. A Head of Centre and an Examinations Officer are two distinct and separate roles.

The Head of Centre and/or Examinations Officer may operate across more than one centre. In such cases the Head of Centre must ensure there is suitable senior leadership team support in place, so they can meet their obligations across all centres for which they are responsible. Word Processor Policy \(Exams\) 2023-24.docx

- Ensures criteria for candidates granted alternative rooming arrangements is clear, meets JCQ regulations and best meets the needs of individual candidates and remaining candidates in main exam rooms

Alternative Rooming Arrangements Policy (Exams)

Alternative rooming arrangements, e.g. a room for a smaller group of candidates with similar needs (formerly known as separate invigilation)

In certain circumstances, a candidate with 'an established difficulty' may be eligible to take exams in alternative rooming arrangements. Stretford Grammar School may also receive requests from candidates (and/or parents/carers) to take their exams in alternative rooms.

The SENCo will make their decision based on:

- whether the candidate has a substantial and long term impairment which has an adverse effect; and
- the candidate's normal way of working within the centre.

For example, in the case of alternative rooms, the candidate's difficulties will be established within the centre and known to a Form Tutor, a Progress Leader, the SENCo or a senior member of staff with pastoral responsibilities.

An alternative room reflects the candidate's normal way of working in internal school tests and mock examinations as a consequence of a long term medical condition or long term social, mental or emotional needs.

The SENCo will ensure that the proposed access arrangement does not disadvantage or advantage the candidate.

A candidate may only take their examinations in an alternative room within the centre where he/she has an established difficulty.

Where candidates are in an alternative room within the centre, the regulations and guidance within this booklet will always be adhered to. This is particularly so in relation to accommodation and invigilation arrangements.

Candidate Identification Procedure

Candidates are identified by photos that are printed prior to the examination series. This includes private candidates who will, in most cases, be former students, or students from Years 9 and 10 studying community languages. Sixth formers are required to bring ID and sign in at reception.

Invigilators will verify the identity of all students that enter the examination room so that they are satisfied that all candidate identities are correct.

A private/external candidate or a transferred candidate who is not known to the school must show photographic documentary evidence to prove that he/she is the same person who entered/registered for the examination/assessment, e.g. passport or photographic driving licence.

Where it is impossible to identify a candidate due to the wearing of religious clothing, such as a veil, the candidate will be approached by a member of staff of the same gender and taken to a private room where they will be politely asked to remove the religious clothing for identification purposes. Stretford Grammar School will inform such candidates in advance of this procedure, well before their first examination.

Once identification has been established, the candidate will replace their veil and proceed as normal to sit the examination.

Invigilators will be informed of those candidates with access arrangements and will be made aware of the access arrangement(s) awarded.

Refer to GR (sections 5.6, 5.9) and ICE (section 16)

- Ensures a log is kept at the initial point of delivery recording confidential materials received and signed for by authorised staff within the centre and that appropriate arrangements are in place for confidential materials to be immediately transferred to the secure storage facility until they can be removed from the dispatch packaging and checked in the secure room before being returned to the secure storage facility in timetable order

Overnight Supervision Arrangements

Overnight supervision arrangements will only be applied as a last resort and once all other options have been exhausted.

Candidates may, at the centre's discretion, be allowed to take an examination the following morning, including Saturdays, but candidates are not allowed to take examinations on an earlier day than that scheduled on the timetable.

The overnight supervision arrangements will ensure that the candidate does not have advance warning of the content of the examination deferred until the following morning. This means the candidate must not meet or communicate with anyone who may have knowledge of the content. This includes any form of electronic communication/storage device, e.g. telephone (both landline and mobile), email, internet and social media. ### Unauthorised items

Arrangements for unauthorised items taken into the exam room

Candidates are warned about unauthorised items at the start of every examination. Phones, for example, are handed in prior to the examination and are stored securely outside the examination room.

In the examination room, candidates must not have access to items other than those stated in the instructions on the question paper, the stationery list or the specification for that subject.

Potential technological / web enabled sources of information are not permitted. Ideally, all unauthorised items are left outside of the examination room. Any pencil cases taken into the examination room must be see-through. Any unauthorised items that have been taken into the examination room will be handed in and placed, by invigilators, out of reach of the candidates (and not under their desks) before the examination starts. This will normally be at the front of the examination room or a similar arrangement that enables the invigilator to control access to the item. Candidates are warned that if they have access to unauthorised items in the examination room this may be considered as malpractice.
