What will you learn?

You will learn to be able to understand and provide information and opinions about these contexts relating to your own experiences and those of others, including people in countries/communities where French is spoken.

How will I be assessed?

Lessons will consist of opportunities to practise the four skills of Listening, Speaking, Reading and Writing within the four contexts. You will be expected to develop strategies to help you become a more independent learner with the ability to present your work in oral and written form.

Mark Breakdown

The course is linear and all exams take place at the end of the course and are set and marked by EdExcel. Higher and foundation tiers are available in all skills but they cannot be mixed over the four skills.
