What will you learn?

Poetry – The Romantics / Post 2000 Contemporary Poetry

You will study:

- A selection of poems from English Romantic Verse to develop understanding of the contexts for Romantic poetry, its formal and ideological aspects, and how to compare poems independently
- A selection of poems from Poems of the Decade, An Anthology of the Forward Books of Poetry 2002 – 2011 to develop understanding of contemporary poetry in its formal and ideological aspects, and how to compare poems unseen at a high level.

Prose (Women in Society) – Tess of the D’Urbervilles and A Thousand Splendid Suns

You will study:

- Two texts from the 19th and 20 centuries respectively, from a comparative perspective, analysing formal and ideological aspects and comparing the various contexts for reading they present.

Drama (Tragedy)

You will study:

- King Lear: William Shakespeare
- A Streetcar Named Desire: Tennessee Williams

Essays and other critical commentary related to the form of tragedy and the history of Shakespeare studies in Shakespeare: A Critical Anthology.

Coursework

You will produce one extended comparative essay (up to 3000 words) referring to two texts and a range of secondary material and literary criticism. Base text: The Great Gatsby by F. Scott Fitzgerald; students’ choice of second text, as approved by EdExcel.
